merSETA Gauteng Region undertakes campaign to talk to members

For immediate release,

In what can be seen as a move to stay true to its vision of being a leader in closing the skills gap, the Gauteng/North-West office of the merSETA is undertaking a roadshow campaign to its constituencies. The three legged roadshow starts at Midrand then moves to the Vaal and then wraps up at Pretoria.

According to Rod Chammudzi, merSETA Gauteng/North-West regional manager, the objectives of the roadshow are to "inform member companies of changes in the merSETA constitution and the restructuring in the organisation, introducing the merSETA Sector Skills plan and inform members of mandatory grants available and SARS tax incentives".

The Midrand roadshow will be held at Gallagher Estate on Wednesday the 6th June 2007. This roadshow has been scheduled to coincide with the Human Resources Development Africa (HRDA) Conference where merSETA CEO Dr. Raymond Patel will address the conference on Scarce and Critical Skills. Members will also have the opportunity to visit the merSETA exhibition stand at the HRDA exhibition and meet the merSETA management committee.

The other legs of the roadshow will be held as follows:

- Vaal – Oudrift riverside lodge ( Potchefstroom) - 07/06/07
- North West – Saint George hotel (Pretoria) - 08/06/07

All roadshows start at 09h00 in the morning.

For more information on the roadshow and a complimentary ticket to the exhibition members can contact Ms. Ntabiseng Maati on (011) 639 7800 or nmaati@merseta.org.za.
