8. Principles of the Policy

- 8.1. The below provides the core principles of quality management that are designed to be used as a guiding foundation to support performance improvement for the merSETA:
 - 8.1.1. Stakeholder focus : At the heart of quality management is the core aim of meeting stakeholder requirements and striving to exceed the public's expectations. A strong stakeholder focus helps build long-term relationships between stakeholders and the organisation, which translates into improved stakeholder loyalty and retention, enhanced employee engagements, and improved organisational reputation.
 - 8.1.2. Leadership: MANCO shall establish a unified sense of purpose and strategic direction through continuously creating the optimal conditions in which employees flourish, gaining motivation and professional satisfaction in the pursuit of quality objectives.
 - 8.1.3. Engagement : Inspiring and empowering merSETA employees at all levels essential to the value delivery process.

DRAFT EXTRACT OF MINUTES OF THE SPECIAL ACCOUNTING AUTHORITY (AA) OF merSETA HELD ON TUESDAY, 26 NOVEMBER 2024 VIA MICROSOFT TEAMS.

1. QUALITY POLICY (AA.0940)

- 1.1. The GSC reviewed the policy and recommended it to the AA for approval.
- 1.1.1 The following was highlighted:
 - 1.1.1.1 The definition of documented information covers policies, procedures, and guidelines. The Organisation is ISO9000 certified. The objective was for the Quality Policy to guide all decisions regarding quality and show the commitment of Manco and the AA to compliance to improve the effectiveness of the QMS.
 - 1.1.1.2 MANCO would strive for continuous improvement and stakeholder engagement. The policy applies to all merSETA departments.
 - 1.1.1.3 The merSETA was not using current and approved documents. The policy would address documentation in this regard.
 - 1.1.1.4 The Manager: Quality Systems is responsible for overseeing the QMS, ensuring accreditation is in place and that quality audits take place. The policy will firm up the role of the Manager.
 - 1.1.1.5 Implementation of complaints management system formally to handle complaints effectively. Laws and regulations guiding the policy were outlined.
 - 1.1.1.6 Customer satisfaction was of concern. The goal was to retain existing stakeholders by satisfying them with the services offered.
 - 1.1.1.7 The policy would be reviewed every five years.
- 1.2. Members raised the following:
 - 1.2.1. Policy and procedures signal a positive message to the AG.
 - 1.2.2. QCTO functions incorporated into the QMS: Procedures and policies exist around quality assurance. Changes were being implemented into the Organisation's documents. merSETA has staff members participating in the process and implementing the changes. The documentation outlining what QCTO has requested from merSETA be shared with the Members and Management. merSETA has an SLA with QCTO outlining the services offered by it. The quality assurance policy was being reviewed and updated.
 - 1.2.3. Members questioned how merSETA has maintained its ISO9000 certification: not everything in the standard is required. The audits assess the evidence as to whether work is being performed. The current system was not coherent.

Resolved that:

- 1. That the Quality Policy be adopted by the AA.
